Oakville 1928 Baseball Team

County Library Receives Cookbook

Mrs. Margaret Glover, librarian, Appomattox County Library, is shown looking over the cookbook recently presented to the County Library by the National Park Women of Appomattox.

National Park Women is an organization of all National Park Women: employees, wives of employees, alumnae, and wives of alumni are members.

Their purpose is to promote friendship and understanding; to provide opportunities to communicate and discuss common areas of interest; to undertake projects to benefit its members, the local communities, the National Park Service; and our endangered environment.

The organization has chapters in each national Park area, regional chapters, and a National Chapter.

They work and help with contributions to the Employees and Alumni Association Educational Loan Fund. $9,000 was donated to this Educational Fund by the National Park Women in 1976.

Each region has his own newsletter as means of communication within local chapters.

JOHN L. LAMPKIN, JR. IN PLAY AT RADFORD COLLEGE

Radford - John L. Lampkin, Jr. of Appomattox will portray the deck hand in the Radford College Theatre production of The King and I on October 31 - November 4 in Porterfield Theatre.

Lampkin, a junior theatre major, is the son of Mrs. Margaret Lampkin of Route 1.

A Rodgers and Hammerstein musical romance, the play tells the story of an English school teacher who is employed to teach western ways to the royal wives, princes and princesses at the court of the King of Siam. The play will be directed by Dr. James W. Hawes, chairman of the theatre department.

EPITAPH OF A BEE

By: Clyde Price

On the morning of the 7th the Daily Beat, it read!
29 to 3 surely Brookville is dead.
Everything was going old Brookvilles way,
Until the mighty Raiders showed up to play.
The whistle blew and the ball was upward bound.
During the game from the Bees came not a sound.
The Bees they tried with all their might,
But on the scoreboard came such a sight.
The Raiders had scored, nothing new for the night.
But into the Bees heart there came such a fright.
The cheerleaders cried and the players died.
The Bees had the chance to get them some fame,
but all they did was pull up lame.
Through all the smoke and sweat they found,
The Raiders were floating and the Bees had drowned.
The Bees now know how old Custer felt.
When the Indians arrow hit him close to his belt.
On top of a mound all that could be found, was three points in the air and nothing on the ground.
In the hills of Lynchburg it is now known, that the Bees had a game and it was blown
The Bees bought a wreath off a florist rock,
but after the game, the Bees wanted it back.
While the Appomattox players had really been bulled,
Now the stingers of the Bees, they have been pulled.
The Bees now say, it doesn't bother us dear,
Because maybe we will get to beat you next year!

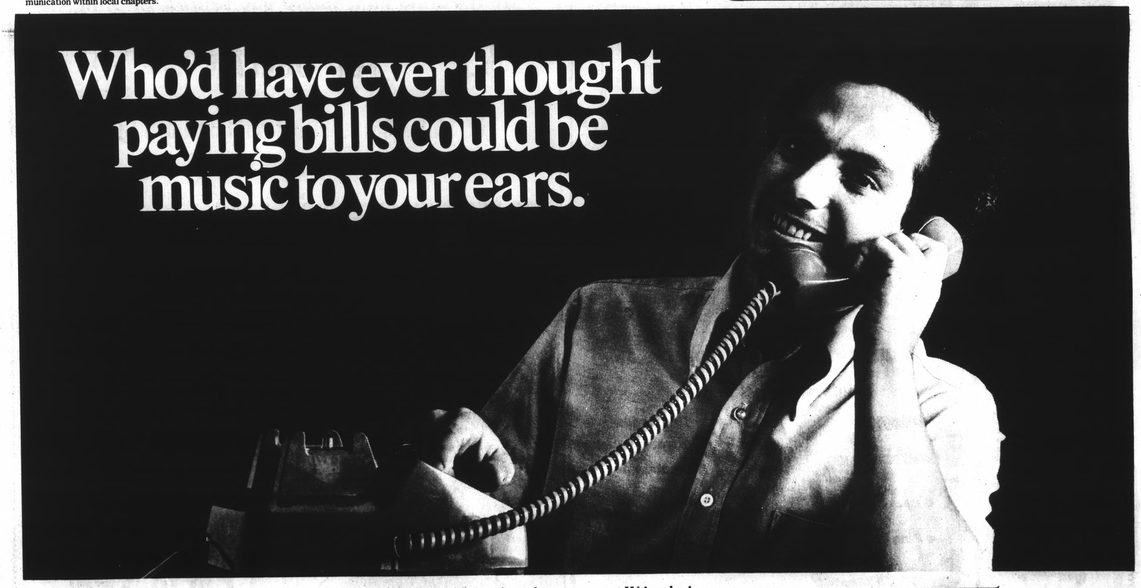
Who'd have ever thought paying bills could be music to your ears.



Now, paying bills is incredibly easy—and almost fun as well. Thanks to American Federal Savings and Loan's new Bill Payer account, you can put paying bills at the tips of your fingers.

Bill paying to a whole new tune.

You see, the Bill Payer is a very special kind of savings account that lets you pay your bills over the telephone—all in a matter of minutes. By using the money that's in your savings account, you can pay whatever bills you want, whenever you want. All of which means you save the time and money and hassle of mailing out bills every month.

5¼% interest should sound good, too.

That's right. Not only does the Bill Payer pay bills just like a checking account, but it earns interest like a savings account. When you open a Bill Payer account, your money earns 5¼% interest—right up till the time it's needed to pay bills.

We're playing your song.

The Bill Payer is convenient. It's economical. It's fun. And it gives you complete control of your finances.

So, why let your money sit idle—when it could be earning interest with the Bill Payer?

To find out more, stop by American Federal and listen to how the Bill Payer works—with your own two ears.

We promise you'll like what you hear.
